GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

As stated on the record during the conference held on November 21, 2022, the pretrial materials required by Rule 6 of the Court's Individual Rules of Practice in Criminal Cases, including motions in limine, are due no later than January 6, 2023. If any motions in limine are filed, opposition papers are due no later than seven days after the date of service of the motion. Reply papers, if any, are due no later than four days after the date of service of the opposition. Courtesy copies of motions in limine should be submitted when the motions are fully briefed. The Court will hold a final pretrial conference in this matter on February 14, 2023 at 9:00 a.m. in Courtroom 12C, Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007.

The parties are further directed to submit: (1) a proposed brief description of the case, to be read to the venire and (2) a brief, mutually acceptable overview of the applicable law, to be read to the jury as part of the Court's initial instructions prior to opening statements, no later than January 6, 2023. If the parties are unable to agree on the language of such a short overview, they are directed to notify the Court of that fact by the same date.

The deadlines for pretrial submissions established by this order supersede the pretrial submission deadlines that were established in the Court's September 29, 2022 order. Dkt. No. 58.

As stated on the record during the conference held on November 21, 2022, trial in this matter remains scheduled to begin on Tuesday, February 21, 2023 at 9:00 a.m.

SO ORDERED.
